

Receive Your Statements From Us by Email

We are pleased to announce that we are now sending our patients their statements securely by email.

Here's how it works...

- If there is a balance remaining on your account after insurance processes your claim, we will email your statement directly to you
- Open the email and click "Pay Now"
- See all of the charges line-by-line matching your insurance EOB including payments made at the office.
- The email will have our practice name as the subject line.
- Click on the link be directed to a secure website.
- Verify your birth date for security and create your own password.
